Detail Introduction :

Can you freeze carrot batons?

Lay your carrot slices or batons out on a baking sheet in a single layer, taking care they don't touch or overlap, then place in the freezer for 1 to 2 hours until they are frozen solid. Pre-freezing the carrots prevents them from sticking together when frozen.

How do you cook frozen carrot batons?

Place into a microwaveable dish. Cover with film and pierce several times. Cook for 4 minutes. Drain and serve.
