Kenya increases avocado sales to Beijing

Detail Introduction :

Kenya has started exporting frozen avocados to China, considering the conditions Beijing imposed be authorizing the import of the Kenyan fruit. According to the Horticulture Directorate, the first shipme arrived in China last month, after the agreement was signed almost a year and a half ago. Kenya has been fighting to relax the rules, as most exporters do not necessarily have the infrastructu freeze the fruit, delaying a seven-year effort to introduce Kenyan avocados to the Chinese market. Businessdailyafrica.com reports that under the agreement reached in April 2019 between President I Kenyatta and his Chinese counterpart Xi Jinping, Kenya would only be able to export frozen avocado to pests such as fruit flies, which have been common in Kenyan fruits.
